MTM LinguaSoft Chosen as Preferred Provider

PHILADELPHIA, April 16, 2008 – Myriam Siftar, president of MTM LinguaSoft, a Philadelphia language services company, announced that the company has been chosen as a preferred provider for language translation services by the National Funeral Directors Association (NFDA).

Funeral directors often have need of translation services because all the paperwork accompanying bodies shipped out of the U.S. must be translated into the language of the country of destination. NFDA serves 19,500 individual members who represent more than 10,000 funeral homes in the United States and internationally. As an NFDA preferred provider, MTM LinguaSoft will receive international publicity through NFDA's website and magazine.

This is the second major recent development for MTM LinguaSoft, which earlier this month received certification as a Women's Business Enterprise from the Women's Business Enterprise National Council.
