

Join Project for Nuclear Awareness and partners for an exciting event:
Thinking Outside the Bomb Conference, May 10, 2008—
Action on Nuclear Weapons, the Environment and Global Health

WHERE: Sheraton University City Hotel, 36th and Chestnut Streets, campus of Univ. of Pennsylvania, near Amtrak 30th Street Station, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

WHEN: 9-5pm Conference, 5-6pm Reception, 6-8pm Dance Performance and Dinner—Presentation of PNA's John and Chara Haas International Peace and Justice Prize to author, scholar, and peace activist Jonathan Schell ("The Seventh Decade", "Fate of the Earth").

Morning Keynote: Bob Edgar, CEO, Common Cause Conference Chair: Craig Eisendrath, PNA

CONFERENCE DETAILS: Beginning at 9:00, Chairman Craig Eisendrath welcomes everyone to the Conference and sets the agenda for the day. The morning keynote, "Confronting the Nuclear Peril to Heal the Planet-Setting a New Course," will be presented by Bob Edgar, President and CEO of Common Cause.

Following Bob Edgar will be Round Table Discussions, "How Do We Move Beyond the Threats to the Planet?" The topics of the round table discussions are:

1. Climate Change and Nuclear Catastrophe: Steven Starr, Physicians for Global Survival
2. Preventing Accidental, Terrorist, or Pre-emptive Nuclear War: Joseph Cirincione, Vice Pres, Center for American Progress
3. Promoting Peace and the Environment- Good for Business: Medard Gabel, BigPictureSmallWorld.com
4. The $5 Trillion Question, Nuclear Weapons vs. Social Justice: Marceline White, Americans for Informed Democracy
5. Nuclear Weapons and Health Effects: Dr. Michael McCally, National Director, Physicians for Social Responsibility

Our lunch keynote, "Connecting the Dots on Nuclear Weapons, Poverty, and the Environment," presented by Jonathon Granoff, President of Global Security Institute. Following Jonathon Granoff, will be a break out session. Topics include:

1. Nuclear and Space Weapons- Empowering Disarmament: Craig Eisendrath
2. Social Justice: Vicente Garcia, AIDemocracy; Bob Moore, Coalition for Peace Action
3. Helping Victims of War: Gillian Gilhool, United Nations Association
4. Environmental Effects: Steven Starr and Medard Gabel
5. The UN and International Organizations-Smart Diplomacy: John Burroughs, Exec. Dir., Lawyers Committee on Nuclear Policy; Ambassador Tom Graham, Eisenhower Institute
6. Nuclear Weapons- Health and Prevention: Michael McCally, Physicians for Social Responsibility
7. Congress and Public Education: Ed Aguilar, PNA Director; Mary Boardman, Univ. of Pennsylvania
8. Media and Public Awareness: Mark Lichty, Advisory Board, Project for Nuclear Awareness
9. Nuclear Power and Nuclear Weapons: Linda Gunter, Beyond Nuclear

After the break out sessions, there will be a Plenary Discussion "Next Steps":

- Congress, the UN, and the Next Administration- Tasks for 2008 and 2009.
The Panel consists of Ambassador Tom Graham-What Next from Stanford Group?; Joseph Cirincione, Center for American Progress; Bob Moore, Coalition for Peace Action; Craig Eisendrath; Martin Fleck, Coordinator, Campaign Nuclear Free World.
- Legislation on Nuclear Policy and Non-Proliferation: Panelists discuss Congressional action on Iran, India Nuclear Trade Deal, international rule of law, and ask conference participants "What is YOUR Organization Doing?"
- Youth and the Role of the New Generation- Millenials, Voting, and Reform: Panelists describe the work at his/her college or by her/his organization, to empower and educate young people.
- Summing Up on Health, Justice, Peace, and Nuclear Policy- Next Steps for Alliance: Michael McCally, Gillian Gilhool, Craig Eisendrath, Joseph Cirincione, John Burroughs

Following the Conference, Jodi Netzer, Performing Artist and Assist. To the Dir. for Programming and Creatives, Project for Nuclear Awareness, performs "The Tipping Point," a dance reflecting the Conference. Keynote speaker, Jonathon Schell, Harold Willens Peace Fellow, The Nation Institute. Also, presentation of the 1st Annual John and Chara Haas Award for International Peace and Social Justice: Jonathan Schell is the award recipient.

TO RESERVE: Online, CLICK HERE

OR— Call PNA at 215-546-3030: Leave your name, phone number, and no. of guests—we'll reconfirm promptly by phone, with a confirmation number for your reservation.

Call Joe or Elisabeth, 215-546-3030 for more details.

Conference Day Package: $75 includes breakfast, lunch, conference materials

Conference-Dinner Package: $125 (for ads, sponsors—see Website.) Conference-Dinner with Sheraton Stay, Friday May 9, 2008: $330, by April 30. Students and Youth: $20 Conference Package; $60 Conference-Dinner Package

Sponsorship Opportunities, for You or Your Organization: CLICK HERE

Please note: If you have already confirmed your participation, please disregard this Email—though we welcome your forwarding to your list and colleagues!

To unsubscribe, just reply with "Unsubscribe" in the heading.

*See Jonathan Granoff's Report on Iran Conference, GSInstitute.org

Conference Partner Organizations, providing speakers and/or financial support for Thinking Outside the Bomb: Americans for Informed Democracy, Beyond Nuclear, BigPictureSmallWorld.com, Business Leaders for Sensible Priorities, Campaign for a Nuclear Weapons Free World, Center for American Progress, Coalition for Peace Action, Common Cause, Council for a Livable World, Global Security Institute, Lawyers Alliance for World Security, Lawyers' Committee on Nuclear Policy, NPRI, Peace Action Philadelphia, Physicians for Social Responsibility, Students Project for Nuclear Awareness, United Nations Association-USA, UNAGP, UNA Bucks County Chapter.